

What is Beauty Therapy?

This course will set you up for a career in beauty therapy. Beauty therapists enhance their client's appearance, promote wellbeing and offer a range of personal care and health services. Beauty therapists perform many treatments including facials, massages, waxing, lash, and brow treatments. Beauty therapists also offer nail treatments, makeup and spa treatments. They are trained to recommend aftercare products to their clients to achieve optimal results. Beauty therapists always have an eye on up-and-coming beauty trends to offer the latest and advanced treatments to their clients.

Duration

12 Months full time. The on campus components will consist of 2 days per week 8:30-3. The hours on campus include practical demonstrations, assessments, some theory and 114 hours of log book hours. Students are required to complete around 17 hours of structured learning at home per week. This will include textbook reading, watching lectures, conducting research and practising beauty skills.
